Porch/ Venue Host

What a Porch Host Does

- Allow musicians access to (only) your porch during their setup, performance, and teardown times.
- Provide electricity via a heavy-duty power cord and power strip.
- Ensure your porch has available space for a band, and is free of clutter that could create a hazard.
- Help welcome the band upon arrival; be a lovely host to festival attendees.
- Allow people in your front (only) yard. Allow them to stand or sit on chairs they and/or you provide.
- Please help promote the event in the weeks leading up to September 15th family, coworkers and friends.
- Please do not create an alcohol-focus to your hosting. This is an alcohol-free event and your help is appreciated in keeping the event viable and safe for everyone.
- Arrange to have a Porch-host at your venue at all times during the event
- Inform your neighbors of your participation in The Porch Music Fest

What a porch host does not (do)

- Bands will be assigned to your porch. (If a friend's band is registering and you want them on your porch, please include their name in the Notes area of your registration. Ask that they request you when they register.)
- Do not allow anyone access to your home. Even for the restroom. Restrooms will be available and locations indicated on the Porch Fest map.
- You need not provide food or drinks to any participants

For the over achiever in you!

- Provide seating for attendees, if available. Maybe set up a whole theater for people? A Friends & Family section?
- Decorate your porch in Porch Music Fest themed decor.
- Compete with your neighbors to have the best The Porch Music Fest porch decor.
- Introduce your bands as they begin their set.
